Rome and Rhetoric: Shakespeare's Julius Caesar

By Wills, Garry.

Yale. 1 Cloth(s), 2011. hard. Book Condition: New. Renaissance plays and poetry in England were saturated with the rhetorical twists that Latin education made familiar to audiences and readers, yet even a formally educated man like Ben Jonson was unable to make these ornaments come to life in his classical Roman plays. Garry Willshimself a recipient of the Pulitzer Prize and the National Book Critics Circle Awardhere focuses on Shakespeare's Julius Caesar to examine how the Bard made these ancient devices vivid, and even gave Caesar, Brutus, Antony, and Cassius their own personal styles of Roman speech. The Rome that English-speaking people carry about in their minds, argues Wills, is the Rome that Shakespeare created for them. 186.
