Excerpt: . . . 11 And obviously I am acquainted with this because of my leadership on the Senate Finance Committee for a long period of time. I want to refer to a recent Wall Street Journal series examining fraud of health: Medicare often fails to stop questionable payments up front because of the pay and chase system occurring for a number of reasons. It is a major vulnerability. I authored legislation last year to correct some of this, and I think that is the next logical step in combating health fraud. Additionally, the Wall Street Journal article pointed out how a three-decade-old court decision made in 1979 protects physician privacy by limiting the release of physician billing records. A former Department of Justice official is quoted in the article as saying that, We should make these records public. At least I think it is time to revisit this issue and bring some transparency to this whole thing. Mr. Breuer and Mr. West, do you agree that we should consider...
