I declare, if it wasn't for meeting some of the girls as they come home from flower-making, I should feel as lonely as a milestone. Three years have I been in the force, and a woman of fortune hasn't fallen in love with me so far. I've been looking out for a roll of bank-notes without an owner, for the last two years, but I haven't seen em yet. I fancy there is more chance for a fellow in the army. I wish I was a blue Scotch grey, instead of a blue bobby. A man of my appearance ought to do something; men of my personal attractions are not picked up every day; but still I don't seem to go off, somehow. Ladies of fortune! where is your taste? Open your eyes, some of you, or I'll take a dreadful oath to die single. Ah, it's the dinner hour...
