When a heart is touched by the events of life, for example, discovering the Saviour, being suddenly aware, conscious of the weight and significance of one's sin; those situations cause a response. This, response, can take many forms, if, by consequence, you are, like me a poet (or even if not) it seems that writing poetry is a channel of expression, a form of written therapy, self-expression which has to be employed. It is akin to squeezing an orange - meaning it doesn't matter where you squeeze the orange, a spray of orange juice leaks out; the fragrance, of which, fills the room. What I am trying to say is this: when I write poetry sometimes there is a conscious effort to express Christian values, ideas etc. and sometimes it happens unconsciously (as it were). One cannot help the feelings, emotions, thought patterns etc. that seem to spill out of one's brain almost uncontrollably. As a committed Christian (since I gave my life to the Lord on July the 9th,...
